Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 3	This organization relied on the processes of a related organization to establish compensation of top management officials, and such processes utilized a compensation committee, independent compensation consultants, compensation surveys and studies, comparability data, and ultimate approval by the board of compensation committee.
Part I Line 4b	The NRA takes a full transparency posture for executive compensation. This comment provides context for the 457b and 457f plans. The related organization has an executive 457b deferred compensation retirement benefit plan for the benefit of certain employees. The 457b plan is employee funded, not employer funded. The related organization also has a nonqualified 457f supplemental income retirement plan for the benefit of certain individuals. The 457f plan is employer funded. The NRA decides the benefit amount and timeframe for vesting of each participant using different factors particular to each relevant individual and his specific desired circumstances. Service costs included in deferred compensation are actuarially determined under FASB ASC 715. The 457f plan is designed to supplement the current tax qualified defined benefit pension plan where current limitations on benefits and employer contributions may be inadequate, and an employer sponsored supplemental income plan can best provide these select employees with the appropriate amount of income in the specific desired situation. 457f payouts are properly included in taxable wages and reported in W-2 income.
Part II	Column Biii Other reportable compensation in taxable wages includes 457b plan, fringe auto, group life insurance benefits, and 457f plan if applicable. Column C represents benefits that will not be paid until the future, including the employer paid portions of the related organizations defined benefit pension plan, 401k plan, and 457f plan if applicable. All NRA affiliates take a full transparency posture for executive compensation paid by related organizations.
